

Alfred Berg is looking for a Financial Controller

We are looking for a committed Financial Controller with an interest in the financial services industry who would like to work within fund accounting. If you want an independent role with varied tasks in the securities area, accounting, cash management and financial management, this is an excellent opportunity!

Who are we?

Alfred Berg Kapitalforvaltning is a well-known Nordic Asset Manager with 160 years' experience in the Nordics. We are specialized in managing and distributing Nordic Assets with strengths in the local presence, the Nordic collaboration, and the global range. Alfred Berg is owned by some of the employees and BNP Paribas Group which is a top-tier European and international banking establishment with a sustainable focus. The total capital we are managing at Alfred Berg Kapitalforvaltning is about 200 billion NOK. The offices are established in Oslo and Stockholm with 65 and 10 employees respectively. Your workplace will be at the Oslo office within the Finance team which consist of 10 employees.

Your responsibilities

- Maintenance and overseeing of financial ledgers and accounting processes for funds
- Reporting to public authorities, large institutional clients, and management
- Follow-up and further development of accounting processes for funds
- Continued improvement of systems efficiency tasks
- Contact with auditors and follow-up of Norwegian and Swedish funds
- Support to CFO
- Ad-hoc reporting/analysis as required

Your qualifications

You have an academic background in Finance, Accounting, Business administration or Economics and relevant experience, preferably within securities. You have an excellent system understanding and the ability to quickly learn new systems. You also have excellent Microsoft Excel and other MS Office applications knowledge, preferably Power BI or similar tools. Your knowledge of written and spoken Norwegian and English is solid and preferably Swedish but it's not necessary. It will be a plus if you have knowledge about Swedish accounting rules.

We believe that you are structured and analytical with a high level of accuracy and numeric skills. You take responsibility for your work, are solution driven and have the ability to prioritize. As a colleague, you are flexible and service minded with a strong will to cooperate on both a local and international level. This role requires a high level of integrity.

Develop with us

At Alfred Berg, you participate in a varied range of tasks and stimulating projects. We work in a dynamic environment, characterized by an international context and collaboration between people in different departments. We have a flat hierarchical structure, where diversity thrives and where there is room for everyone regardless of age, sexual orientation, religion, gender. As an employee you will get particularly good insurance- and pension terms and take part of a bonus program. You can look forward to social events and new facilities in Aker Brygge.

Please send your CV and Personal Letter to hr.no@alfredberg.com with e-mail subject "Fund Accounting Controller". We will interview candidates continually. If you have questions about the position, please contact HR, Rikke Aas Jacobsen, +47 916 32 363.

We look forward to receiving your application.
